TITLE IX

Policies, Reporting, and Support

www.equity.arizona.edu

 THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA

The University of Arizona is committed to creating and maintaining an environment free of discrimination. In support of this commitment, the University prohibits sex-based discrimination including harassment and violence. A person affected by discrimination can seek confidential support or assistance, can request supportive measures, and can request formal disciplinary proceedings by the University.

The University utilizes a variety of approaches to prevent and redress sex discrimination. We realize that individual community members who are affected in some way by sex discrimination may benefit from many sources of support and assistance. All members of our community must know where to turn if they have a concern, need assistance or support, or would like to file a complaint. We have compiled a collection of resources and information to assist members of the University community.

Retaliation against anyone who makes a complaint, or who participates in any complaint-related process, is not tolerated.

The Process

The University of Arizona has equitable procedures in place to address concerns promptly, thoroughly, and fairly. The procedures for investigation and resolution of complaints are detailed in the applicable disciplinary/grievance procedures.
