LEGAL PROTECTIVE ORDERS

Injunctions Against Harassment in Arizona can be initiated at azpoint.azcourts.gov. This website also provides information on process steps, information on courts throughout Arizona, and on community-based advocates.

Tribal Protective Orders may be available through courts which administer justice systems of Native Nations/tribal nations. Each tribal court may utilize a specific process; individuals seeking tribal protective orders should contact the tribal court directly. A list of tribal courts by state is available at tribal-institute.org/lists/justice.htm.

ADMINISTRATIVE NO CONTACT ORDERS

No Contact Orders are issued by the Office of Institutional Equity and the Dean of Students Office. These orders are administrative and are generally non-disciplinary and mutually binding. The orders are issued to students and may be issued in all instances where the university may exert disciplinary authority.
